

CAPACITY

The capacity of a machine learning algorithm is its ability to learn a variety of possible functions.

More capacity means a more flexible model at the risk of overfitting.

Chris Albon