

SATURATION

OF THE LOSS FUNCTION

Saturation is when a function's outputs are very insensitive to inputs.

Under high saturation, the gradient of the loss function is very small and no longer as useful in learning process.

Chris Albon