

LEAKY RELU

Similar to ReLU but is never zero, instead returns a small positive number:

$$\phi(z) = \begin{cases} z & \text{if } z > 0 \\ 0.01z & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

Because leaky ReLU always returns a value, the gradient is never zero.

ChrisAlbon